

How do we make Gender Based Violence a political priority?

An annual dialogue on enhancing state responsiveness to Gender Based Violence

Organisations will have shared their responses, individual and collective, to GBV in their sectors and areas of work. Collaborative strategies for addressing GBV will have been shared and ideas for deepening this to place GBV squarely on the political agenda will have been identified.

Date: 1 June 2012

Time: 8:30 for 9:00 - 16:00

Venue: Heinrich Böll Foundation,

The Avalon Building, 123 Hope Street, Gardens, Cape Town

Programme

Time	Agenda Item
8:30 - 9:00	Registration
09:00 - 09:10	Welcome
9:10 - 9:30	Introduction
9:30 - 10:15	Presentation & engagement: "Setting the Scene: Is GBV currently a political priority?"
10:15 - 11:30	Group Discussions: "How are we currently addressing GBV?"
11:30 - 11:45	TEA
11:45 - 12:30	Report back, discussion and identifying key emergent questions/ issues
12:30 - 13:15	Case studies: Working in collaboration
13:15 - 14:00	LUNCH
14:00 - 14:30	Case studies cont.: Questions, lessons learnt; identifying common concerns/ positions
14:30 - 15:45	Strategy Session: How can we better work together?
15:45 - 16:00	Wrap up
16:00	Thanks, Close & Informal networking over tea

*Programme may be subject to change